

Ewam Buddhist Studies Certificate (shedra) Program 2022:

At the Ewam Buddhist Institute, we focus on imparting the comprehensive views of all three vehicles; the foundational vehicle, the Mahayana and the tantras leading to the pinnacle, great Dzogchen of Vajrayana. The courses cover both the theory and practice of the entire Buddhist path taught by our world class faculty, Namchag Khen Rinpoche and Jetsunma Jamyang Palmo. The sutra courses (first three courses) will be taught through the root text, Treasury of Precious Qualities by Jigme Lingpa. These courses will occur over the duration of 10 -15 days to make the program more opportune and conducive to the ability of all students to attend. These short-format courses will provide a holistic, comprehensive and first-hand experience of Buddhist Philosophy. The Ewam Buddhist Institute also offers practice instructions and extension courses throughout the programs making this a unique and invaluable feature of our curriculum. The sutra courses will also be offered online live streamed and for later viewing to accommodate personal schedules.

Upon completion of the sutra section and pre-requisite practices students may apply to attend the Vajrayana program. Tantra courses will be held for twenty-two days this year from the root and commentary text. The accumulations of Ngondro practices and completion of Vajrayana I are mandatory to take the Vajrayana II class. The students of the Vajrayana classes will receive Mahayoga, Anuyoga, and Ati-yoga empowerments of the canonical tradition. Tulku Sang-ngag Rinpoche will bestow empowerments at the beginning of the Vajrayana Shedra this year.

Ewam will award the following two kinds of certificates after graduation:
