

Ewam Garden of One Thousand Buddhas is pleased to announce a new multi-year cycle of teachings derived entirely from

The Namchak Lineage Treasure Texts of Tsasum Lingpa

beginning with

The Sadhana of the Wrathful Pema Traktung

taught by Ewam's esteemed teachers

KhenRinpoche Ngawang Namchak and Jetsunma Jamyang Dolma

July 1 – 10, 2025

This cycle of teachings is a rare opportunity to receive pure lineage teachings of the generation, completion and dzogchen stages of the Buddhist path as taught by the Namchak Lineage masters, who have preserved and protected these precious teachings in an unbroken chain up to the present Lineage Holder, Gochen Tulku Sang-ngag Rinpoche.

The first teaching in the new cycle is:

The Sadhana of the Wrathful Pema Traktung

Offered July 1 - 10, 2025

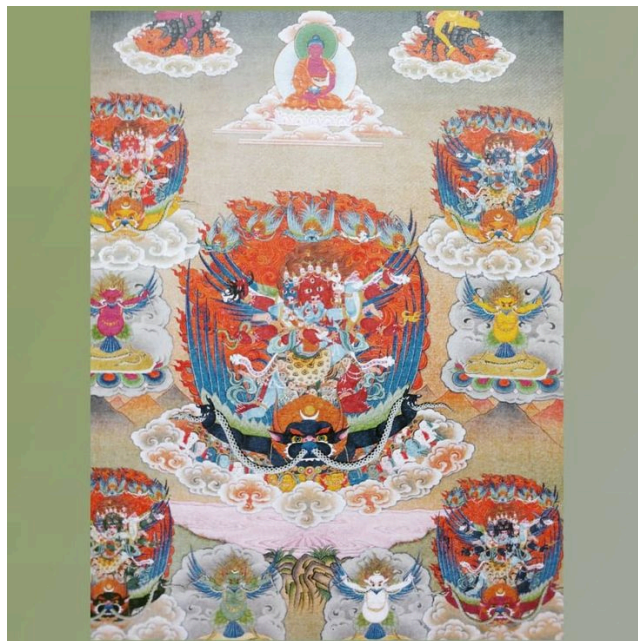

The Wrathful Pema Traktung

This deity practice teaching is from the treasure texts of the Namchak Lineage, of the Nyingma School of Tibetan Buddhism. This precious teaching includes visualization, ritual, religious instruments, and butter sculptures (tormas).

A wrathful form of Guru Rinpoche, Pema Traktung fiercely protects all sentient beings from disease and other forms of suffering. The ferocity of his appearance symbolizes the intensity of his compassion.

In Tibetan Buddhist iconography, the wrathful forms of enlightened beings are often depicted with fierce facial expressions, multiple arms, and sometimes in a ring of flames. Wrathful does not mean angry or hateful, but represents their unmovable commitment to alleviate the suffering of beings.

The Pema Traktung course is open to all Vajrayana practitioners who meet the following requirements:

- Vajrayana experience
- PemaTraktung empowerment
- Ngondro

On June 29-30, Tulku Sang-ngag Rinpoche will bestow the Vajrayana and Pema Traktung empowerments for those who need it.

If you are a Vajrayana practitioner and unsure whether you meet the requirements, please send a summary of your Buddhist practice experience including: 1) previous Vajrayana deity practices; 2) which lineage you received ngondro instruction from and what progress is done; 3) if you have the Vajrayana empowerment, from which Lineage; and 4) if you have the Pema Traktung empowerment, from which lineage. Send this summary to admin@ewam.org. You will be notified after review by the Lamas.

The Pema Traktung teaching is in-person only at the Garden of One Thousand Buddhas in Montana.

Don't miss this opportunity to receive this precious teaching from the Namchak Lineage treasure texts.

NOTE: You will register for "The Sadhana of the Wrathful Pema Traktung" through the Shedra registration portal. Registering for Pema Traktung there does NOT register you in the Shedra program. Registration for Pema Traktung is handled there for convenience because it is also an extension course in the Shedra program.

To register, select the Pema Traktung ticket. Available add-ons include lodging options, meal plan, and the text for this course: "Conferring the Glory, and Granting the Wish of the Two Siddhis: A Manual for Deity Practice from the Cycle of Pema Traktung, the Wrathful Lama".
